

TOP NAVY CHEF GIVES D'LICIOUS GOURMET COOKIE THE NOD

Red Velvet White Chocolate Chip Walnut Cookies Gets Navy Seal of Approval

(Stafford, VA - November 16, 2007) - Senior Chief Petty Officer and Culinary Specialist Kevin Pitre knows quality when he tastes it. After two decades of service as one of the United States Navy's top gourmet chefs, Petri finally found the perfect cookie. One taste of D'Licious Gourmet Cookies' Red Velvet White Chocolate Chip Walnut Cookies recently elicited praise from the experienced baker and gourmand.

"They were excellent, and I mean this was one of the best products I have tasted in my 22 year cooking/baking experience," Pitre expressed.

Having already been called "mouth watering" by customers who have ordered and tasted the small yet impressionable delight, the cookie has become one of the top sellers of the brand, and is the perfect dessert after traditional holiday meals.

Made with what D'Licious Gourmet owner Debra Rogers calls the best, all-natural ingredients available, the trans-fat free treat is even becoming irresistible to health food eaters and shoppers at Graul's Supermarket, a small independently owned gourmet supermarket in Annapolis, MD. It features a delectable interior reminiscent of rich red velvet cake, decorated with white chocolate chips and walnuts. Yep, all that in a cookie!

As an active member of the U.S. military herself, Rogers knows that Pitre's praise is a huge compliment to her work, eye for perfection in details, and culinary mastery.
